

A TEAM APPROACH TO CRIMINAL DEFENSE

Broden & Mickelsen is exclusively dedicated to providing aggressive and ethical representation to individuals charged with criminal offenses. The firm does this through its unique approach in which both founding partners, Clint Broden & Mick Mickelsen, play an active role in all of the firm's cases. Broden & Mickelsen is committed to the belief that a person accused of a criminal offense deserves to be represented by an experienced and scholarly team of lawyers that provide a vigorous defense at a reasonable fee. The firm also recognizes the importance of keeping in close contact with clients throughout the representation. Whether it be a lengthy jury trial, the negotiation of a favorable plea agreement or a complicated appeal, any client of Broden & Mickelsen will know that he or she has a dedicated team representing their interests and one that will fight to the finish.

THE PRACTICE Broden & Mickelsen represents clients charged in state courts throughout Texas from offenses ranging from DWI to capital murder. The firm also specializes in representing clients charged in federal courts throughout the nation in complex cases, and has won an extraordinary number of acquittals in federal court. In addition to representing clients at trial, Broden & Mickelsen has a very active appellate practice in both the courts of appeals and the United States Supreme Court that is unrivaled by most criminal defense firms.
